

Disinfection vessel

This decontamination and disinfection vessel have unique characteristics and features that guarantee the operator simple, rational and above all safe use.

This vessel is made with a special plastic that is compatible with chemical liquids. They have a shaped bottom that allows the instrument container to remain suspended, so preventing the instruments from coming into contact with the residues resting on the bottom of the vessel.

Height: 180mm

Width: 325mm

Depth: 140mm

Stainless steel tank dimensions
(WxHxD): mm 265 x 52 x 90

Support dimensions (WxHxD):
mm 295 x 20 x 240

2086-S-3

- Full removable lid, which allows the liquid to be changed easily and quickly;
- partial lid, which allows instruments to be inserted without having to open the vessel completely with consequent escape of odours and fumes;
- support equipped with mechanical timer;
- internal vessel made of plastic in the S-2 version, of steel in the S version.

